

Time III

by Monica Yuskaitis

Skill Tested on Star Test

Copyright © 2000 by Monica Yuskaitis

Objective

- To know when to use A.M. or P.M. when telling time

Vocabulary

- A.M. – (ante meridiem) before noon.
- P.M. – (post meridiem) after noon.

Noon

At noon the sun is about in the middle of the sky, it's about when we eat lunch, and the clock has both hands pointing to 12.

Noon

Noon is neither P.M. nor A.M.
It is between both.

Midnight

Midnight happens at night, we are usually asleep, and both hands of the clock point to 12.

Midnight

Midnight is neither P.M. nor
A.M.

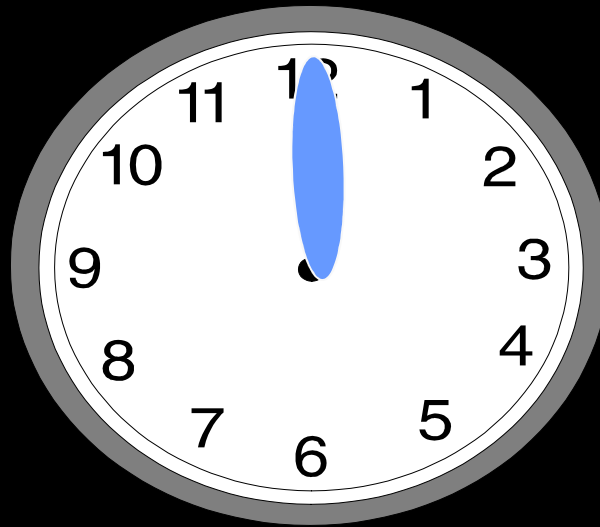

It is between both.

A.M.

Sleep

Wake up

Get dressed

Breakfast

Go to school

Eat lunch

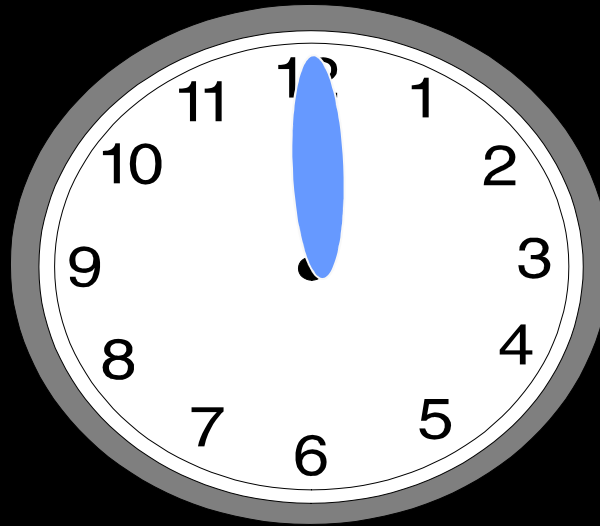

The time from 12 o'clock
midnight until 12 o'clock noon
is A.M. time.

P.M.

Eat lunch

Play

Eat dinner

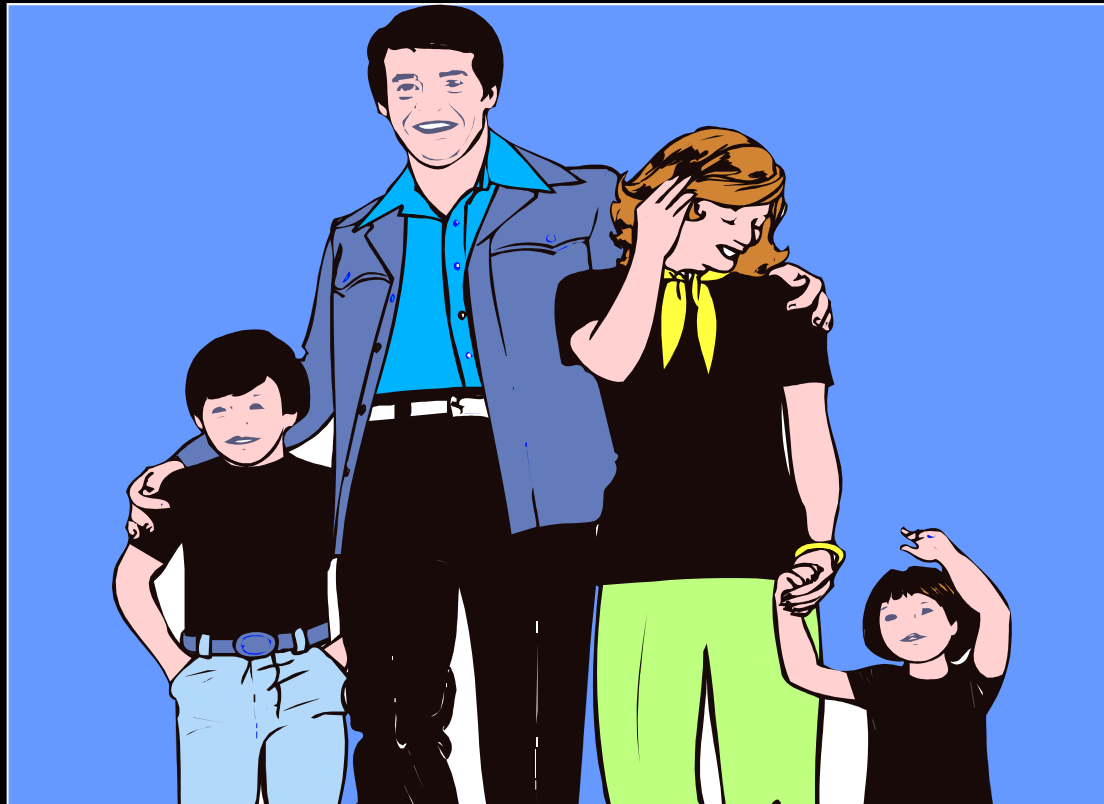

Homework

Watch TV

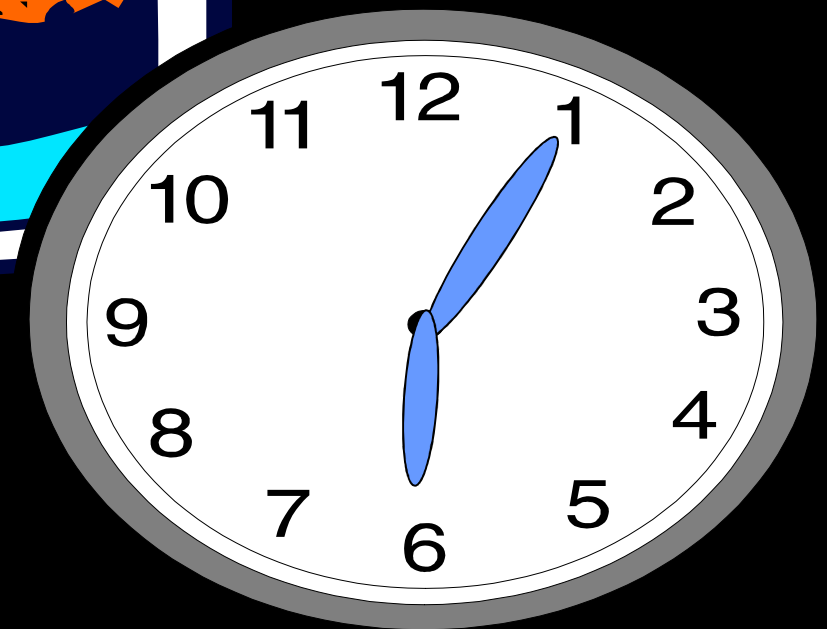

Go to bed

The time from 12 o'clock
noon until 12 o'clock midnight is P.M. time.

Let's look at a day in the Lopez family to see if you can guess when it is A.M. or P.M.

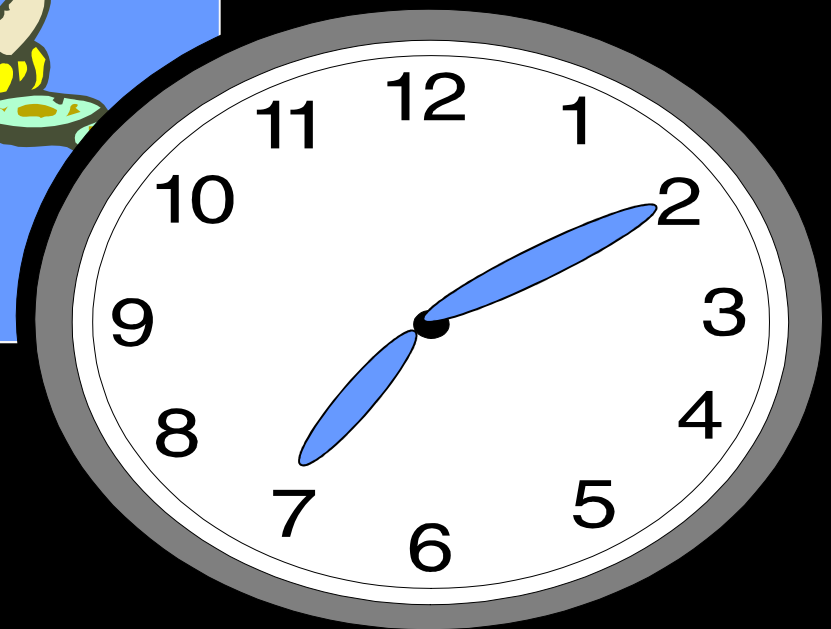

The sun rises at 6:05 A.M.

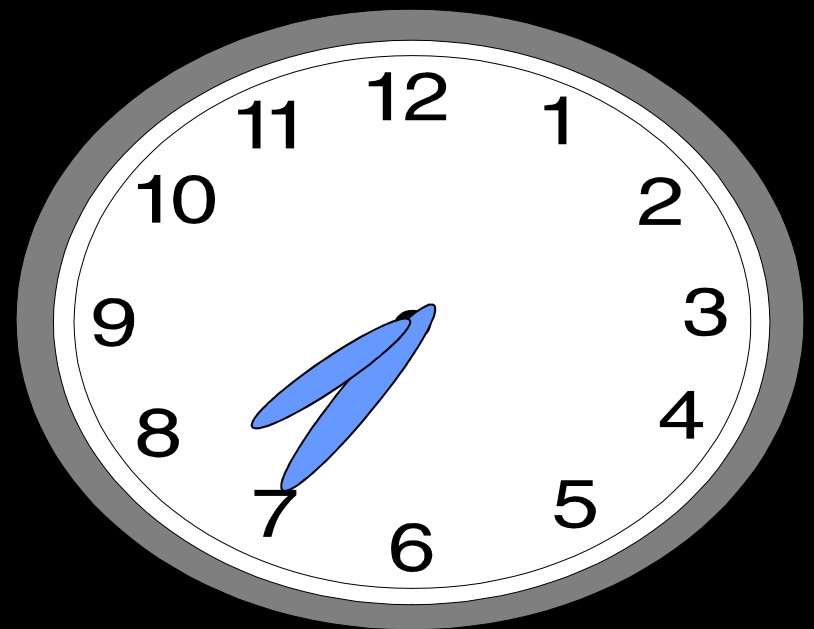

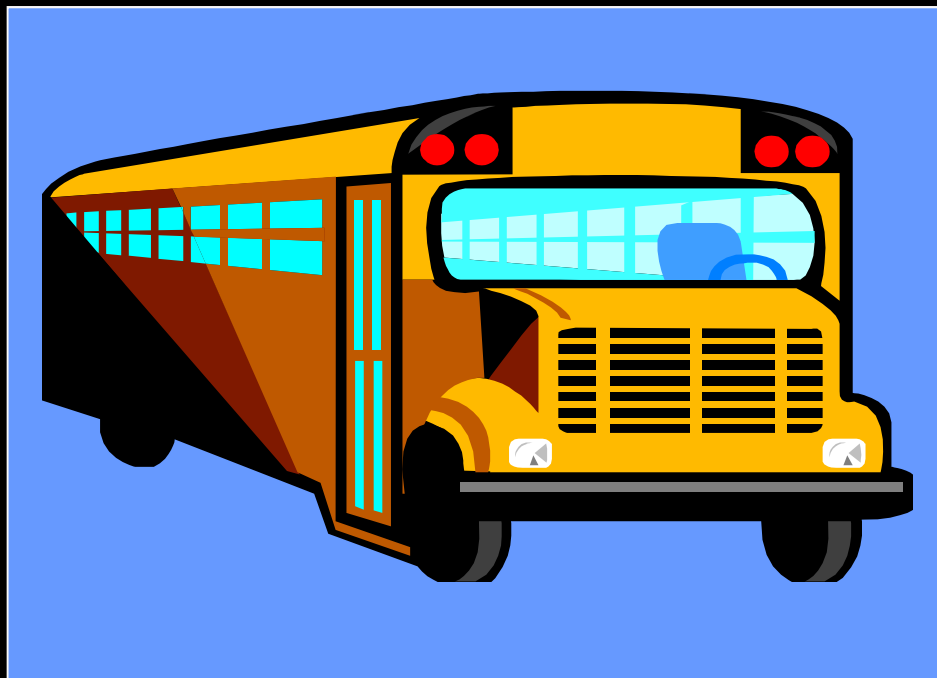

Mr. Lopez runs at 6:30 A.M.

Mrs. Lopez serves breakfast at 7:10 A.M.

Ricardo and Maria's school bus arrives in front of their house at 7:35 A.M.

Mr. Lopez goes to work in the supermarket at 8:05 A.M.

Copyright © 2000 by Monica Yuskaitis

Maria goes to Girl Scouts after school at 3:30 P.M.

Ricardo goes to soccer practice after school at 4:00 P.M.

Copyright © 2000 by Monica Yuskaitis

The family eats dinner in their backyard at 6:00 P.M.

Copyright © 2000 by Monica Yuskaitis

Maria and Ricardo do their homework at 7:00 P.M.

Copyright © 2000 by Monica Yuskaitis

Maria and Ricardo go to bed at 8:30 P.M.

Copyright © 2000 by Monica Yuskaitis

Credits

Illustrations from:

- Clipart from ClickArt 125,000 Deluxe Image Pak, T/Maker Co., Broderbund Software, Inc.
- Microsoft Clip Gallery located on the Internet.